

A hotel for Everybody

atmosphere where 90% of the staff are local and take great pleasure in making sure that you are well looked after. The interior with green foliage invites you to sit and relax in comfortable surroundings, a place where you will feel in tune with the Island.

In the hotel you will find the Thalasso Centre with direct access to the promenade. Many doctors recommend the thalasso treatments for their positive effects in alleviating the symptoms of a variety of illnesses, especially skin problems. The centre also offers massages, saunas, beauty treatments and special health cures. Take up this invitation to experience this paradise of well-being, good for both mind and body. The sensation of being totally pampered is something to look forward to.

Upstairs from the Thalasso Centre, with direct access to the promenade, you will find the Restaurant Isla de Lobos. The young but internationally experienced chef, Dhenis Capellino, creates in wonderful surroundings, dishes from all over the world with an Italian touch. Dhenis presents his guests with a combination of new and exquisite flavours, and when you see his presentation you know what is meant by 'the art of cooking'. If you want to spend a romantic dinner, or have a special occasion to celebrate, the Isla de Lobos restaurant will make it an unforgettable night. Show your friends that it is possible to have a classy dinner in Playa Blanca.

In the Princess Yaiza hotel it is very evident that the staff treat their guests with a warm and friendly approach, in the exquisite ambience you feel at home, something that in big hotels is often lacking. In Kikoland you will find special play areas designed for each age group, funny and colourful animations, swimming pools both for younger and older children, there are also lots of sports facilities for everyone to enjoy. On entering the 10.000 square metres you will be amazed at the diversity and possibilities that Kikoland has to offer. Knowing that children and adults often want to do entirely different things, you are given this great opportunity to leave the young here under professional care, so that you can chill out and do whatever you want to do but normally don't have the time, knowing that your children are perfectly safe. Kikoland is the perfect place to spend a day out with the family, especially when grandparents have their family visiting them and want to take them somewhere different.

As you can see, it is very easy to have a wonderful day catering for all the needs of your family, here in Playa Blanca. If you want to take care of your health and personal well-being, have a romantic dinner, find the perfect place for a celebration or give your children an exciting day out with new experiences, here in the Princesa Yaiza, it is all at your fingertips with ideal conditions to spoil the whole family. If you meet some internationally known celebrities, don't be amazed, they are just normal people with the same needs and desires as you!

Take care of yourself.
